God is My Lover

(Note ~ Other words for God can be placed in here of whatsoever you feel comfortable calling such energy ie Love, Source, Spirit, the Master Artist, All That Is, Creator, and so on)

God is my lover

God allows me to be to be who I Am

Who I truly Am

Freely

without judgement, without belittling and ridicule

God allows me to be free, to dance to shine, to follow my heart, freely free from boundaries and limitations, free from conditions of if I behave this way or that then God will love me.

Rather, God loves me unconditionally sees me as perfection allows my visions, dreams, and creations to flow through me effortlessly without judging me

God listens to me

God is free from calling me delusional for such visions, dreams, and creations

God is free from saying I cannot sing with him/her

God is free from ignoring me or withholding his/her love from me ever no matter what I say or do or act or be

God is free from blocking me or saying I cannot be with you because of a mistake you made

God sees those mistakes free from being mistakes, just simply choices and that I can choose again and again and again

And still

God cherishes me honours me for all I Am and all I choose to be

Whatever that is

In each moment

God holds me, loves me, protects me, provides for me

Infinitely

I can create whatsoever I choose of God's love pouring through me in divine creation and it is beloved by God always God says 'You are my beloved, within whom I Am well pleased'

God says I can have my heart's desire God reminds me in each moment of who I Am
Which is God, which is love
With God as my lover
I shall not want I shall not seek I shall just BE
I Am love, I Am light, I Am All That Is I Am whole, perfect, complete, and beautiful simply as I Am
And I desire no other
And I shall be in service
To, through, and with God Giving, simply giving As God gives Always, in all ways
I Am alone
As in ALL One

I Am God's lover

And God's lover is me
