1. Heart Centred Recognition~ There is just an inner knowing within you, like a love that a mother has for her child. And if you in ego are doubting or saying things like no it can't be, then YUP! This is your twinsoul ☺
2. Resonance ~ Deep strong resonance and connection via the soul and heart via voice, photo or being in one another's physical presence. This is a deep resonance within the heart chakra, one that calls you from beyond this earth even.
3. Passion ~ There is an extreme passionate bonding and desire to connect that can have a sensual/sexual energy to it and at the same moment is beyond this. You are speechless due to this and due to the soul based and spiritual based synchronicities and energetic connection shared between you.
4. Magnetic Pull ~ Even if you want to try and stop the connection, there is a strong magnetic pull between you that brings you two together again and again on all levels and resonances. The Master Artist is orchestrating the divine connection in bringing you together.
5. Vibrational Energy in Sync ~ There is a vibrational energy you experience that you have been free from feeling before. You are literally melding together as One, two BEing as One. It is free from making any difference where you are geographically on the earth you feel one another always, in all ways, and communicate telepathically effortlessly and continuously.
6. Soul Merging~ There seems to be a merging of the souls that you can feel although you may not be able to place into words. And this is when the true Sacred Path twinsoul journey begins. The journey of knowing who you really are which is Love. And BEing this Love, wholly and completely.
7. The Uh Oh Factor~ There comes a realisation over you that has you deeply question the power of this connection and deep unconditional love. There are many reasons for this questioning and it is all divinely occurring for you to remember more and more of who you are and who you are two together (two BEing as One as twinsouls) and is the beginning of the journey into Christ Consciousness of balance within on a whole new level than you have experienced thus far on your own and also within the merging and BEing together with your twinsoul on the Sacred Path of Divine Love. You are now preparing fo this reunion in melding your harmonic resonances together.

8. I Breathe This Love~ You begin to see, feel, experience and create life within the Divine Love resonance that it is on a whole new level never before, as your heart begins and continues to open more and more into this Love and BEing this Love, it continues to simply BE within you regardless of seas or seasons. Even within the stormy seas of circumstances and situations with your twinsoul in the melding of the spiritual, emotional, mental, and physical bodies you understand that this process is what is to be to chisel the masterpiece you both are as One.
